

Position Summary
Position Title	Project Engineer
Position Summary	The Project Engineer is responsible for preparing estimates and proposals, delivery of studies and multi-discipline detailed design projects in accordance with technical standards, budgets and schedules.
Responsibilities
Responsibilities will typically include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">Managing a team of discipline engineers delivering studies, engineering, design and support to procurement, construction and commissioning activities managed by the Client.Working closely and effectively with team members to ensure the company's reputation for high quality services and client satisfaction is maintained.Client satisfaction, effective management of opportunities, client expectations and control of project scope, schedule, budget and risk leading to repeat business.Developing new business through personal networks and established company relationships.
Experience
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Degree in a relevant engineering discipline.Demonstrated 5-10 years' experience in the mining industry with most of this in a multi-discipline design environment.Demonstrated 2-3 years' experience as a project engineer.Brownfield project experience.
Duration
12+ months with an immediate start
Location
Primary Location	Perth CBD office with site visits
Working hours	As required, typical 40 hours per week